

Executive Summary

The India–Mexico Business Exchange 2025 emerged as one of the most consequential bilateral trade engagements of the year—uniting policymakers, Fortune-500 buyers, leading Mexican conglomerates, and 30+ high-potential Indian exporters across automotive, engineering, packaging, textiles, food processing, plastics, and consumer goods.

Embassy of India in Mexico	INDMEX Council	Credlix (a Moglix company)
The event received major national media attention in Mexico, all underscoring a shared strategic message: India and Mexico must deepen cooperation to strengthen global value chains.

Event Highlights

DAY 1 — 19 November 2025

Connecting Markets: India–Mexico Business Evening

Hosted by the Embassy of India in Mexico City, the Exchange opened with a high-level diplomatic evening attended by government leaders, trade bodies, Mexican corporations, and the full visiting delegation of Indian exporters.

Keynote by H.E. Dr. Pankaj Sharma, Ambassador of India to Mexico: "La diversificación de las exportaciones y las asociaciones de producción ya no es un lujo, sino una necesidad estratégica."

Presentations by Mexican leadership from SRE, Ministry of Economy, and Sam's Club Mexico, followed by Credlix's presentation on financing the India–Mexico corridor.

DAY 2 — 20 November 2025

Buyer–Seller Meet & Sector Networking

The Buyer–Seller Meet brought together hundreds of Mexican procurement heads, distributors, and sourcing managers, engaging directly with Indian exporters across automotive components, plastics, machinery, textiles, and processed foods.

Key themes included cost-competitive sourcing, reducing overdependence on single-country suppliers, enabling faster lead times, and structuring open-account terms backed by financing.

DAY 3 — 21 November 2025

Knowledge & Enablement Day

The final day focused on practical mechanics essential for converting conversations into real, long-term trade, including:

- Logistics & Import Enablement by XPD Global
- FDI & Market Access Outlook by Ministry of Economy
- Credlix Export Finance Workshop on non-recourse export factoring and financing structures
- One-to-One consultations with experts across credit insurance, pricing structures, compliance, and logistics

Strategic Outcomes

For Indian Exporters

- Deep visibility into Mexican buying behavior
- Understanding Mexico's regulatory environment
- Access to Credlix finance solutions
- Dozens of pilot engagements initiated

For Mexican Buyers

- Discovery of vetted Indian manufacturers
- Lower sourcing costs and flexible payment frameworks
- Reliable alternatives for multiple supply chains
- Long-term vendor development opportunities

For Credlix

- Positioned as Universal Financing Partner
- Demonstrated on-ground support capability
- Reinforced India's role in supply chain resilience
- Expanded cross-border financing solutions

Media Coverage

Excélsior

"Hay que fortalecer las cadenas de suministro"

Imagen Radio

"México e India deben hacer sinergia para fortalecer cadenas de valor"

Imagen TV (X)

Video coverage of diplomatic remarks & event highlights

Excélsior (X)

Social coverage featuring leadership and delegations

A Transformative Milestone for India–Mexico Trade

When India and Mexico collaborate, global supply chains become stronger, more flexible, and more competitive.